

Kusperg House Healy Auction

Vienna, June First, 1925
Items of the occult and mystery

Lot 1. Ankh, Egyptian

Circa 550BC. Height 23cm [9"]; width 10cm [4"] across the arm. Composed of an alloy of copper and silver bearing untranslated hieratic markings about the front. Known as the "Blood Ankh".
Minimum bid P100.

Lot 2. Manuscript of Beth Elohim

Hebrew, by Beth Elohim written circa 1580AD. The pages are illuminated with gold leaf. Leather binding, octavo, 426 pages.
Minimum bid P60.

Fig. 125. A page from the Soncino Hagaddah printed in 1486

Los 3. Multiple Lot

Magician's Cassock, embroidered with various signs of ceremonial magic. Hickory Wand, carved with astrological signs. Athame, 31cm [12"] long, double-edged.
Minimum bid P40.

Lot 4. Hand of Glory

USA circa 1900. The preserved left hand of a human, marked overall with mystic designs. Each finger supports a candle reported made of rendered human fat.
Minimum bid P20.

Lot 5. Multiple Lot

African Fetish, circa 1800, of teak wood and hair. About 18cm [7"] tall, in the style of the Hausi tribe of western Africa; African Drum, circa 1800, teak wood and skin, irregularly shapy, 41cm [16"] tall. Both bear the sign of the same artisan.
Minimum bid P30.

Lot 6. Book, The Magus

English by Francis Barret. First edition, 1801, Lackington, Allen & Co, Publishers.

Minimum bid P50.

Lot 7. Sword

German, circa 1350. First belonging to the alchemist and sorcerer Paracelsus, it is 108cm [42"] long with a pommel engraved with the word "AZOTH".

Minimum bid P250.

Lot 8. Skull, Human

Circa 1500. Used during black masses. Top of skull removed and interior inlaid with silver to form cup. Rim surrounded by 13 garnets.

Minimum bid P100.

Lot 9. Riveted Brass Head

Germany 13th century. Artisan unknown. Similar to the "Philosopher's head."

Minimum bid P130.

Lot 10. I-Ching Sticks

China, second ming dynasty. Carved ivory, six sticks used to cast the I-Ching, each 15.5cm [6"] long and 40mm [1/4"] square.

Minimum bid P70.

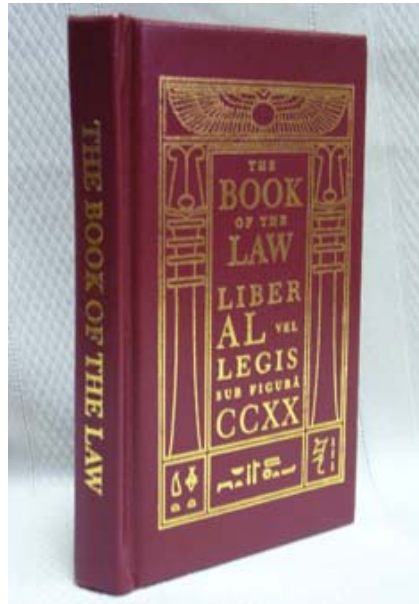

Lot 11. Brooch of St-Christopher

France, 12th century. Bears inscription "Regarde St-Christophe et va rassure".

Lot 12. Book, Book of the Law

English, by Aleister Crowley, published 1904.
Minimum bid P10.

Lot 13. Book, Prodigies in the New-England Canaan

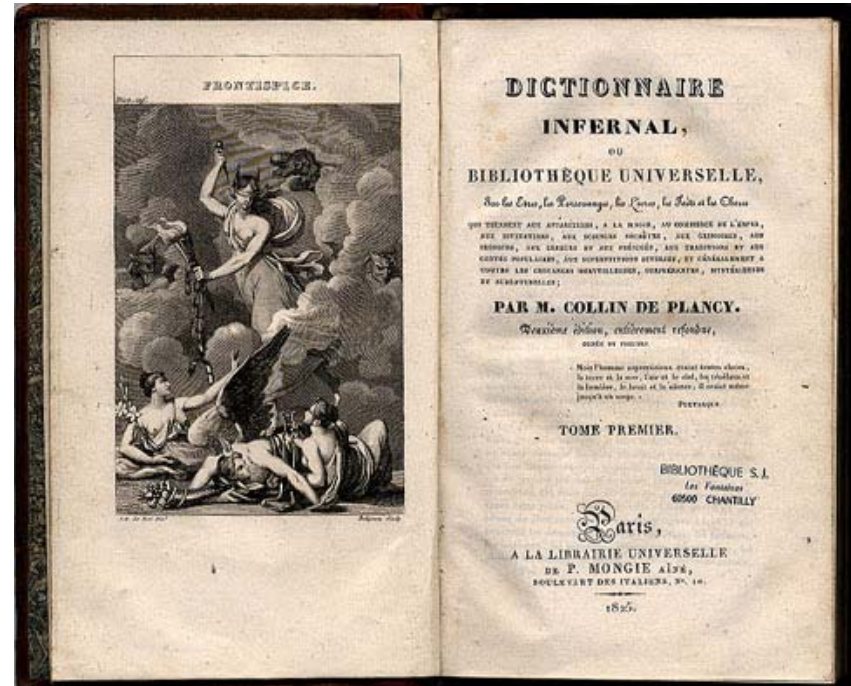

English, by Rev. Ward Phillips. Colonial US. 18th Century.
Minimum bid P55.

Lot 14. Multiple Lot

Four medallions: two gold, one copper, one tin. France circa 1600. Protective signs to be worn by sorcerer during various magical operations.
Minimum bid P45.

Lot 15. Book, Dictionnaire Infernal

French, by Jacques Collin de Plancy, reprint, 1863 by Plon.
Minimum bid P18.

Lot 16. Shaman Medecine Bag

Eskimo (Canada), modern, leather.
Minimum bid P45.

Lot 17. Gold Ring

Arabia, 19th Century. A design of intertwined serpents surround a magical symbol evidently meant to be a Seal of Solomon.
Minimum bid P35.